ANTI-BRIBERY AND ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Greatech Technology Berhad (“Greatech” or “Company”) and its subsidiaries (“Group”) is committed to conduct business with honesty, integrity and ethics in all business dealings and all jurisdictions in which the Group operates in.
- 1.2 This commitment is embodied in the Greatech’s Code of Conduct & Ethics Policy and this Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy (“Policy”).
- 1.3 Adherence to the guidelines set out in this Policy will ensure that the Group and the employees comply with anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and governmental guidance.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.1 Bribery is a serious criminal offense in countries in which the Group operates. As part of the commitment to uphold the highest legal, moral and ethical business practices, all forms of bribery and corruption are not acceptable and will not be tolerated.
- 2.2 Greatech does not permit any direct or indirect offer (payments through Business Partners), payment, solicitation or acceptance of any improper payments (bribes, kickbacks or facilitation payment) in any form in connection with the Group’s business dealings or activities.
- 2.3 This Policy applies across all jurisdictions in which the Group operates and to all employees and all intermediaries or any third parties, who represent the Group.
- 2.4 This policy does not preclude reasonable and appropriate hospitality designed to encourage constructive relationships with Greatech’s customers, prospects and other parties rather than influence a particular decision.
- 2.5 Greatech maintain detailed and accurate books and records and a system of internal controls that ensure all financial transactions are properly authorised and executed.
- 2.6 All individuals to whom this Policy applies have a responsibility to comply with this Policy and a duty to disclose non-compliance with this Policy without fear of victimization through established reporting procedures.
- 2.7 Any employee who fails to comply with this Policy, whether intentionally or by act of negligence can lead to disciplinary action being taken that could ultimately result in termination of employment.

7.6 Employees must always seek prior approval from their department heads before accepting or offering:

Category	Threshold	Greatech Malaysia	Threshold	Subsidiaries not operating in Malaysia
Gift	Above RM100	If accept or offer, need to record in the gift register as provided by HRA dept. For acceptance of gifts, HRA to decide whether retain by individual dept or surrender to Greatech	Above USD100 for non-EU Countries Above EUR100 for EU Countries	If accept or offer, need to record in the gift register as provided by HRA dept. For acceptance of gifts, HRA to decide whether retain by individual dept or surrender to Greatech
Entertainment/hospitality	Above RM300 per individual	Approval by CEO	Above USD100 for non-EU Countries per individual Above EUR100 for EU Countries per individual	Approval by CEO

7.7 The section/function heads and Head of Department (“HOD”) should also consider the frequency and appropriateness of timing when approving expenses even where a particular gift or hospitality proposal does not exceed the approval threshold.

7.8 Modest gifts and hospitality may usually be offered or accepted provided there is no expectation or belief that something will be given in return. A gift designed to secure a return favour could be seen as a bribe. For the avoidance of doubt, modest gifts and hospitality that are acceptable and will not require approval may include:

- small gifts, including gifts of nominal value such as diaries, calendars, pens and other small promotional items i.e. samples;
- occasional modest meals with people with whom the Employees conduct business; or
- common courtesies such as drinks or modest refreshments provided at Greatech or a third party’s premises in connection with a legitimate business meeting.

- 7.9 If Employees received an unexpected gift or hospitality that appears to exceed the approval limits, the Employee must declare the item to his/her superior after the event. In respect of the gift, the Employee may be required to return it, surrender it to Greatech or give it to charity if it is not considered appropriate to retain it. When in doubt, Employees should consult HRA department.
- 7.10 Outward gifts and hospitality that are below the approval thresholds are subject to the Group's expense approval process and will not be approved if the relevant approver considers the expense to have been inappropriate. Such instances will be reported to the CEO.
- 7.11 All receiving of gifts and hospitality which require approval will be fully documented in the Register established for such purpose.
- 7.12 Employees must ensure that gifts or hospitality is being provided openly and transparently, commensurate with generally acceptable standards for hospitality taking into account the norms of the industry and within the value limits set by the Group and has all required approvals. The intention behind the gifts or hospitality must always be considered and it must never be for the purpose of improperly influencing a person in the exercise of their duty.
- 7.13 Employees should be aware that offering or receiving gifts or benefits of any value, at a sensitive time in a business relationship i.e. when a tender or transaction is in a key phase is not appropriate and should not be made. If gift is offered in exchange for business, discounts, services, or anything apparently intended to influence the business judgment, all employees and business partners must decline the offer and report to Group immediately.
- 7.14 This requirement extends to the provision or acceptance of gifts or hospitality through any Business Partners or to or by family members of an employee of an actual or a potential customer. In addition, the Employee must not directly or indirectly provide gifts, hospitality (other than appropriate hospitality) or any advantages to or for the benefit of potential customers or government officials, their relatives or other intermediaries.
- 7.15 Employees should use own good judgement in receiving gifts and entertainment, taking account of this policy and within relevant authority limits in the Greatech Delegation of Authority Policy.

- 8.4 Sponsored travel generally is allowed. On some occasions, Employee may invite a third party for visit to Greatech facilities for promotion and demonstration of Greatech products and services. Payment or reimbursement of bona fide expenditures such as travel and hotel expenses, incurred by or on behalf of the third party for such a visit is permissible provided that:
- 8.4.1. such expenses are legitimate business purpose;
 - 8.4.2. such expenses are modest and reasonable; and
 - 8.4.3. it is in accordance with all applicable laws and regulations, including recipient's own rules.
- 8.5 Employees must disclose and obtain prior approval from the CEO before the travel expenses are incurred.
- 8.6 Travel and lodging expenses should be paid directly to third-party provider i.e. airlines or hotels or travel agent that has selected for travel arrangements. Provide money to individual to make his/her own travel arrangements is not permissible. Employees should never provide funds for travel to third party directly except in exceptional circumstances, and only after receiving prior written approval from the CEO.
- 8.7 All expenses shall be recorded accurately and in detail.
- 8.8 For situation of which third party offer to pay for the travel and accommodation expenses to Employees, Employees must obtain prior approval from their reporting manager or CEO before accepting the third party offer to pay its travel and accommodation expenditures.

9. FACILITATION PAYMENTS AND KICKBACKS

- 9.1 The Group prohibits making or accepting, facilitation payments or kickbacks of any kind, either directly or indirectly.
- 9.2 Facilitation payments are unofficial, improper, small transfers of value offered or made to secure or expedite a routine or necessary action to which we are legally entitled.
- 9.3 Kickbacks are typically payments made in return for a business favour or advantage.
- 9.4 If Employees encounter a demand for facilitation payment, they should report the situation to their manager without delay, who will then ensure that the CEO is informed at the earliest possible opportunity.

9.5 Greatech believes that demands for facilitation payments are often backed by a form of extortion and in very exceptional circumstances where a facilitation payment is unavoidable, a payment can be made where an Employee reasonable believes his/her or another's life, freedom or health is at risk unless a demand for payment is met. Any such payments must immediately be brought to the attention of CEO and must be properly accounted for.

10. CHARITABLE DONATIONS AND SPONSORSHIP

10.1 As part of Greatech corporate citizenship initiatives, Greatech supports a number of charitable causes by making donations, whether by way of cash payments or the provision of services in kind i.e. technical assistance or training.

10.2 Any donations and sponsorship on behalf of Greatech must be transparent and for legitimate purpose, given through legal and proper channel. Care should be taken to ensure that recipient charity or sponsored organisations on receiving end are bona fide bodies, able to manage the funds properly and any funds are not diverted to other beneficiaries.

10.3 All personnel should also avoid situations where conflicts of interests could arise from making donations or sponsorships. Beware of making contributions to charities or sponsored organisations that may have links to government officials or their families, as this could be seen as an act to influence the official's decision in gaining benefit to Greatech.

10.4 Greatech will not sponsor events or activities that are:

- not align with Greatech's values and Code of Conduct & Ethics; and
- associated Greatech with event, individual or other organizations that could bring Greatech into disrepute.
